

Bianca Gancarz, a 10th grade student at JM was selected as the first-place winner of the annual Student Writing Contest in the Grade 9/10 Art Division hosted by the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) of the Youngstown Area Jewish Federation. Her artwork was amongst the best that was received of the entries from the Mahoning and Shenango Valleys.

Awards for the writing contest winners were presented at the JCRC's virtual Holocaust Commemoration program on Thursday, April 8th, at 7:00 pm.

Congratulations Bianca
